

Do you know a Veteran who has a housing construction related need?

Would you like to thank a Veteran for their service by helping to build, or repair, their home?

*All work is done by licensed contractors

It's time to make the connection.

Since 2009, a group of Naperville residents has volunteered to assist Veterans within a 20-mile radius of Naperville. A group of skilled professionals in the real estate, building, financial and legal industries came together to help veterans move forward by providing the services a veteran needs to make their house a home.

Mission Statement

The organization assists Veterans and their families in need, especially those with low and moderate income, by raising donations of money, building materials, and professional labor; and coordinating the process of repairing, building, and donating homes. Naperville Responds For Veterans is a nonprofit 501(c)3 organization that provides services to Veterans in need and those in crisis.

“I am so grateful for what the NRFV did for my home and my family. It was a godsend to have the work completed, I could have never done it myself.”

– J. Spangnola, USMC

“I would like to start by thanking all of the people from NRFV who helped me out when I was at a very tight and difficult time in my life. You came into my home and you were a God send. Your squad, because that’s about the number of people that got involved, truly accomplished the mission. I would go into a firefight with anyone of you. The saying LEAVE NO MAN BEHIND, should be, if it is not already, the motto of NRFV. At a time when I was in need, you my brothers in arms, stepped forward. This is what patriotism looks like. I’ve always been proud to live in this country where the stars and the stripes represent the soul of its individual people and their ability to care for others. Semper Fi.”

– CPL Cullen Barry, USMC

Ways You Can Help

Volunteer - Donate - Participate

Our military and its Veterans provide the freedom and opportunity we have been given each and every day. Veterans epitomize the spirit of placing the needs of others above their own. NRFV gives back in the most meaningful way by assisting Veterans in need with housing improvements and donations. We are incredibly thankful for the continued support of our friends and community members in assisting Veterans’ housing needs.

– Dan Jurjovec, President NRFV
